“Calling Us Home . . .” A Lenten Worship Series based on 1 Peter

...is adapted from a series by Dr. Dale Meyer, President Emeritus of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, MO, and former speaker of The Lutheran Hour.

“Here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come” (Hebrews 13:14). God is calling us home. Five times Peter tells the scattered congregations of Asia Minor that they are called by God in his brief First Epistle. His letter is rich with guidance and encouragement for living in an increasingly secular society as we journey toward our heavenly home. In Lent and Easter we invite worshipers to the eternal truths that guide our pilgrimage toward eternity.

Some Background on 1 Peter...

“The readers of the apostle Peter’s letter were confused and discouraged by the persecution they were encountering because of their faith. Peter exhorted them to stand strong, repeatedly reminding them of Christ’s example, the riches of their inheritance in him, and the hope of his returning again to take them to heaven. Peter explained how Christians should respond when they suffer because of their beliefs. Called the “apostle of hope,” Peter’s primary message is to trust the Lord, live obediently no matter what your circumstances, and keep your hope fixed on God’s ultimate promise of deliverance. Suffering is to be expected, but it is temporary and yields great blessings for those who remain steadfast.”
